

KKEF Young Environmentalist Internship Award 2013 Recipient

Mr. Ng Chuck Chuan

Mr. Ng Chuck Chuan, 25 years old, received his First Class Honours of Bachelor of Science degree in Environmental Science and Management on October 2012 from University of Malaya, Kuala Lumpur and currently pursuing the second-semester (first year) of his fast-track Ph.D. in Plant Bio-remediation, Soil Pollution and Land Rehabilitation as well as working as a Research Assistant (RA) and Academic Tutor (demonstrator) at the same university. Besides that, he was also one of the national 2012 Duli Yang Maha Mulia Seri Paduka Baginda Yang Di-Pertuan Agong (Malaysian Supreme King's) Ph.D. scholarship awardee and with his ultimately interests in various fields, Mr. Chuck often serves as an environmental activist and other community development project coordinator cum volunteer.

He is a highly motivated person with impressive enthusiasm and strong interests in global development, social welfare and environmental issues. This young gentleman also actively participated in numerous extra-curricular activities where he was an active member of many both local and regional clubs, societies and organisations. Indeed, he has participated in various activities including representing Malaysia in the global environmental study exchange to the United States of America, South Korea, Singapore, Indonesia, Thailand and the Philippines.